Burial Robe for Smoking Jacket.

A negro at Carlisle robbed an undertaker's shop of several burial robes and casket name plates. He used one of the robes for a smoking jacket, and had one of the name plates "At Rest" tacked on his door.

Kentucky's Coal Output

Prof. C. J. Norwood in his report of the coal mined in the State for the year 1901, says there was mined for that year 5,324,712 tons. Of this amount Hopkins county produced 1,348,701 tons, which is more than 25 percent of the whole amount mined in the State. The increase last year over that of the year before was 304,037 tons.

Pence, the former pastor, is sent to Campton, and Rev. S. M. Carrier goes to College Hill. Rev. A. E. Redd is Presiding Elder. W. B. Ragan, a former Presiding Elder, has been assigned to Irvine.

Employees' Outing

The L. & E. road Saturday placed a special train at the disposal of its employees, who spent the day in outing at Natural Bridge. There were twelve coaches in the train, and before it reached its destination the number of its occupants had reached twelve hundred. Over half of this number were from Lexington.

Double Track L. & N.

It is likely that the Louisville and Nashville will in the not very distant future be double-tracked. President M. H. Smith told a gentleman recently that the company was doing all the business now that can be handled on the single track. The road is well equipped with sidings and switches and the only way heavier traffic can be provided for is by putting down an additional track, which will likely be done.

New Kentucky Industries.

Among the new enterprises lately launched in Kentucky the following might be mentioned: Covington, 30,000 oil and gas company; Louisville, $100,000 coal company; Olive Hill, big flouring mill; Owensboro, $150,000 planing mill; Paducah, $80,000 heating plant and $20,000 mining company; Raglan, $50,000 oil company; Somerset, $10,000 electric light plant and $150,000 coal company; Vanceburg, telephone system.

Confederate's Home.

The building formerly known as Villa Ridge Inn, at Pewee Valley, seventeen miles east of Louisville, was chosen by the Board of Trustees for Kentucky's Confederate Home. Capt. S. H. Ford, of Owensboro, was elected commandant to have charge of the institution.

Rev. Sawyer Exonerated.

The trial of Rev. J. A. Sawyer, at London, the Dover pastor, who has been suspended for four months until conference, resulted in a complete exoneration. He was accused of unbecoming conduct and his name was coupled with that of a prominent widow of Dover. The thorough investigation which was courted by Mr. Sawyer proved the charges against him to be without a semblance of foundation, and that he has been much maligned and persecuted. Mr. Sawyer was formerly presiding elder of this district, and is greatly beloved by the people here. It is stated that a libel suit will be instituted by the woman against those who have been prominent in the prosecution of the charge which has brought to her so much unpleasant notoriety.

Money-Making at Home.

The October Delinquent offers many valuable suggestions to women who would like employment at home and notes several instances in which a competence has been acquired by women who have followed such unusual lines of work as marking linen, sewing on skirt braids, making plum pudding, Saratoga chips, paper dolls, favors for weddings and etc.

Sold for Vagrancy.

At Shelbyville Saturday, Fish-Millon, a negro convicted of vagrancy, was sold publicly to David Murphy, of color, for $4. Murphy, who is a prosperous farmer, says he will treat his "slave" kindly, and give him plenty to eat and wear, but he'll make him work even if he has to resort to the persuasive influence of the blacksnake whip.

The council of Harrodsburg has ordered a vote of the people to be taken at the November election for the issuing of bonds to the amount of $66,000 for the purpose of establishing an electric light plant and putting in waterworks. It is quite probable that the municipal ownership question of these enterprises will carry at the election.

Attorney General Pratt holds that elections to fill vacancies in the offices of Police Judge and Magistrate can be held this year only in towns and counties embraced in the districts in which Appellate Judges are to be elected. Others must be filled by appointment by the Governor.

As a result of a boyish quarrel in Fayette county, W. Va., Jas. Nesbitt, aged 19, killed John Crouch, 15, with a stone which struck over the heart. Thomas Crouch, father of the victim, was so overcome by the tragedy that he fell dead.

The Balance Wheel

Look inside your watch a moment. The balance wheel is making 18,000 vibrations an hour, if it's in good condition. If the movement is sluggish, there's something wrong. It will move 3,558 miles in a year, and requires less than one-tenth of a drop of oil to make it run. But it needs that little bit. The least degree of friction on the bearings alters the motion. Don't take chances. Let me clean and oil and put your watch in order for a year. It will pay and satisfy you.
